GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Judaica Librarianship

Scope and Policy
Judaica Librarianship is devoted to the organization and management of Judaica and Hebraica collections of all types. The editors welcome articles on all aspects of the Jewish library and book worlds. The journal is not designed to duplicate existing Jewish bibliographic guides, but to provide current and authoritative information on the organization, classification, and cataloging of Jewish and Yiddish materials.

Manuscript Length
Articles, reviews, columns, and letters of varying length are 12–30 pages in length (3,000–8,000 words); columns and letters should not exceed 900 words.

Illustrations
Photographs and other illustrations (tables, figures, diagrams, charts, graphs, illustrations, appendices, screen captures) should be submitted in machine-readable format. For tables and charts the preferred software is Microsoft Word. For graphics, use TIFF or a format that can be translated into TIFF using a TIFF generator. Each illustration should be in a separate file. Tables and figures should be numbered and referred to in the text. Graphs, charts, and other illustrative material should be in black and white, not color.

Altered Publications Required by Reviewers and Editors
Editors are expected to submit manuscripts, disks, and art that are free from misspellings and other typographical errors. Editors and production staff will correct typesetting errors. Authors are responsible for making revisions requested by the editor. All editorial revisions must be made before the issue goes into production. Deadlines for making these revisions will be strictly observed.

Upon making these revisions authors are requested to send the editor a final, revised copy of the article by e-mail attachment.

Proofs and Reprints
Authors receive a free copy of the journal issue in which their work appears, and permission to photocopy their articles for distribution to their colleagues.

GUIDELINES FOR REVIEWERS

Reviews of reference books, works of professional interest, CD-ROMs, websites, and other electronic publications are expected to include descriptions, evaluations, and critical comments (preferably in this sequence).

The descriptive part should acquaint the reader with both the purpose and contents of the work. Basic information about the author or producer, and the work itself (series of articles, illustrations, etc.) may be included in this portion of the review.

The evaluation of the material should consist of an objective examination of the contents, a spot-checking of sources, and summarization of findings (whether the work meets the stated objectives of the author or producer, whether the work meets scholarly standards, etc.). Critical comments pertaining to the technical aspects of the work (arrangement of material, order of chapters, bibliography, functionality of the interface, etc.) may be included in this section.

Basic criticism, including the reviewer’s opinions and final judgment of the work, should be placed toward the end of the review. Note to publishers: Judaica Librarianship publishes other than reference books, works of professional interest, and new periodicals should be sent to review editors for the AJL. Newswriter is an online publication website: http://www.jewishlibraries.org/ajl/ajlpublications/newsletter.htm.
