Register of Judaica Bibliographies in Progress

Barry Walfish
University of Toronto
Toronto, Canada

The Register was introduced in vol. 4 no. 1 (Fall 1987–Winter 1988), p. 97; a second installment appeared in vol. 4 no. 2 (Spring 1988–Winter 1989), p. 192. This column features new listings as of July 1, 1989.

The entries are presented in the following format:

1. Topic (include exact title if known).
2. Scope.
3. Publication plans.
4. Updating plans.
5. Compiler’s name and affiliation.

   2. Lists books and articles about antisemitism appearing worldwide in any language. Each item includes full bibliographic description and an abstract. Antisemitic works are not included.
   4. To be published annually. Material kept in a data-base. Future plans include:
      a. a volume on cultural antisemitism in Poland between the two World Wars;
      b. a listing of retrospective material;
      c. a listing of items on antisemitism from Lithuanian newspapers between the two World Wars;
      d. expansion of coverage to include items on the Holocaust.
   5. Compiled by the staff of the Sassoon Center under the editorship of Susan S. Cohen.

   2. An annotated bibliography of about fifty scholarly books and serials in English appropriate for a law library beginning a collection in Jewish law.
   4. Bibliography will not be updated.
   5. Phyllis Holman Weisbard, Librarian, Gruss Talmudic Civil Law Library, New York University.

C. 1. Jewish Law: Bibliography of Sources and Scholarship in English.
   2. Includes scholarly books and articles published in English through 1988. Includes primary sources in English translation, secondary sources, and unpublished dissertations.
   4. The plan is to issue updates every two years.
   5. Phyllis Holman Weisbard, Librarian, Gruss Talmudic Civil Law Library, New York University and David Schonberg, Jerusalem.

Send reports of Judaica bibliographies in progress to:
Dr. Barry Walfish
28 Bruce St.
Hamilton, Ont.
Canada L8P 3M6

Dr. Barry Walfish is Hebraica and Judaica Cataloguer and Bibliographer at the University of Toronto Library, Toronto, Canada.