

Register of Judaica Bibliographies in Progress

Barry Walfish
University of Toronto
Toronto, Canada

The Register was introduced in vol. 4 no. 1 (Fall 1987–Winter 1988), p. 97; a second installment appeared in vol. 4 no. 2 (Spring 1988–Winter 1989), p. 192. This column features new listings as of July 1, 1989.

The entries are presented in the following format:

1. Topic (include exact title if known).
 2. Scope.
 3. Publication plans.
 4. Updating plans.
 5. Compiler's name and affiliation.
- A. 1. Antisemitism: An Annotated Bibliography.
2. Lists books and articles about antisemitism appearing worldwide in any language. Each item includes full bibliographic description and an abstract. Antisemitic works are not included.
- B. 1. "Basic Books and Periodicals on Jewish Law: A Guide for Law Librarians."
2. An annotated bibliography of about
3. Published by Garland Publishing, New York, for the Vidal Sassoon Center for the Study of Antisemitism, Jerusalem. Volume 1, covering publications for 1984–85, published in 1987. Volume 2, for 1986–87, to be published in 1989.
4. To be published annually. Material kept in a data-base. Future plans include:
 - a. a volume on cultural antisemitism in Poland between the two World Wars;
 - b. a listing of retrospective material;
 - c. a listing of items on antisemitism from Lithuanian newspapers between the two World Wars;
 - d. expansion of coverage to include items on the Holocaust.
 5. Compiled by the staff of the Sassoon Center under the editorship of Susan S. Cohen.
- C. 1. Jewish Law: Bibliography of Sources and Scholarship in English.
2. Includes scholarly books and articles published in English through 1988. Includes primary sources in English translation, secondary sources, and unpublished dissertations.
 3. To be published by Fred Rothman & Co. Law Books, tentatively in 1990.
 4. The plan is to issue updates every two years.
 5. Phyllis Holman Weisbard, Librarian, Gruss Talmudic Civil Law Library, New York University and David Schonberg, Jerusalem.
- fifty scholarly books and serials in English appropriate for a law library beginning a collection in Jewish law.
3. To appear in Law Library Journal, vol. 82.
 4. Bibliography will not be updated.
 5. Phyllis Holman Weisbard, Librarian, Gruss Talmudic Civil Law Library, New York University.

JERUSALEM BOOKS LTD.

All books by all
ISRAELI publishers - at highly competitive prices

Write for Catalog
P.O.B. 18189
Jerusalem, 91181 ISRAEL

Send reports of Judaica bibliographies in progress to:

Dr. Barry Walfish
28 Bruce St.
Hamilton, Ont.
Canada L8P 3M6

Dr. Barry Walfish is Hebraica and Judaica Cataloguer and Bibliographer at the University of Toronto Library, Toronto, Canada.