JUDAICA LIBRARIANSHIP

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Scope and Policy

Judaica Librarianship is devoted to the organization and management of Judaica and Hebraica collections of all types. The editors welcome articles on all aspects of the Jewish library and book worlds. The journal is not designed to duplicate existing Jewish bibliographic and book reviewing media, however; only reviews of professional and reference works are considered for publication. (See the Guidelines for Reviewers, below.)

Articles published elsewhere are not ordinarily considered for publication. Exceptions include extensively revised and updated versions of papers included in the AJL Convention Proceedings. Authors are requested to include a cover note to the editors describing any prior versions that might be considered duplicate publications. The cover note should also include the author's e-mail address and daytime and evening phone numbers.

All submissions are refereed by three experts and are edited or abridged in accordance with the decisions of the editorial board. Manuscripts must be in English.

Format and Submission of the Manuscript

Articles and reviews must be submitted to the editor electronically, via e-mail attachment or on disk, either as a Microsoft Word document (.doc) or in Rich Text Format (.rtf). In addition, a printout of each article or review should be mailed to the editor. Manuscripts should be double-spaced (including tables and references), in 12-point type on 8.5 × 11 inch or A-4 paper, with margins of at least one inch (2.5 cm) on all four sides to allow for editing. Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively.

Authors are advised to keep a copy of the original manuscript and all accompanying illustrative matter, as well as a copy of the edited manuscript until the issue is published.

Manuscript Length

Articles, reviews, columns, and letters of varying lengths are accepted. A manuscript may be approximately 5–30 typed pages, double-spaced (including references and abstract), in 12-point type. Typical peer-reviewed articles are 12–30 pages in length (3,000–8,000 words); column pieces tend to be shorter. Lengthier manuscripts may be considered but only at the discretion of the editor-in-chief.

Structure and Style of the Text

The general style of manuscripts for this journal should follow the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. Each article or review must include:
